Music on CD at the Ames Free Library September 2011

Amy's Picks

As Fall approaches, I always like to have a stack of new CDs to listen to on those chilly autumn afternoons. As you curl up at home, pop one of these new releases into your CD player. ~Amy

Explosions In The Sky

Take Care, Take Care, Take Care

Perhaps you've heard of the Austin, Texas band Explosions In The Sky or listened to some previous albums. They are an instrumental rock band that combines a mix of experimental sounds and instruments to create their music. Amazon.com sums up their style as "equal parts romance and tragedy, their beautiful melodies have the tendency to ignite into head-spinning walls of noise." My pick: "Be Comfortable, Creature." Reserve

Foo Fighters

Wasting Light

Dave Grohl and friends go back to basics on their latest album which they recorded in Grohl's garage. They eliminated the use of computers and software in the production resulting in a strong, clean rock sound. Listen to the single "Rope." Reserve

TV on the Radio

Nine Types of Light

Said to be a bit different from their previous work, Nine Types of Light is a compilation of love songs with lyrics and music that express poetry and longing. However, these are not romantic ballads; they still have the rock feel you would expect from TV On the Radio. Check out the song "You." Reserve
