Feed
M.T. Anderson

Written in 2002 and eerily prophetic, Feed is dark satire set in a future where wealthy Americans voluntarily implant the internet--complete with shopping, instant messaging, and pop-up ads--into their children's brains at birth.

Sweet Life of Stella Madison
Lara M. Zeises

The 17-year-old, junk-food-junkie daughter of a famous chef and a restaurateur struggles with her parents' separation, her summer job as a food critic, and an attraction to a guy who isn't her boyfriend.
