Soul Enchilada
David Macinnis Gill

When, after a demon appears to repossess her Cadillac, she discovers that both the car and her soul were given as collateral in a deal her grandfather made with the Devil, 18-year-old Eunice "Bug" Smoot ties to find a way to outsmart the Devil and his minions before her two-days' grace runs out.

The Devil's Paintbox
Victoria McKernan

At 15, Garth is increasingly tired of living a lie: when he comes out to his mother she insists he keep it a secret, his crush turns out to have honesty issues, and now his late father's identical twin shows up and involves Garth in certain, uh, "fund-raising" activities that must remain clandestine.

Emperors of the Ice
Richard Farr

Farr chronicles the true story of an ill-fated 1911 Antarctic expedition from the perspective of Apsley Cherry-Garrard, a 23-year-old participant, in this inspiring tale of men battling overwhelmingly brutal elements with experimental gear, high spirits, and indomitable courage. Adventure lovers won't be able to put this one down.

Shine, Coconut Moon
Neesha Meminger

American Samar never gave much thought to her Indian heritage until one day, shortly after 9/11, when her estranged turban-wearing uncle shows up on her doorstep and sets her on a course to discover the unvarnished truth about her mother and herself.

Alligator Bayou
Donna Jo Napoli

To Calogero, newly arrived from Sicily, the Louisiana bayou is a lush world full of contradictions, hidden rules, and tension between the black, white, and immigrant communities. He tries to be polite and follow American customs, but every day brings Calogero and his family closer to a terrifying, violent confrontation.
