Annual Appeal

Does this sound familiar? "Honey, what do you want to do tonight?"

If you are like most of us, you might watch a movie, read a book, listen to music, or even attend an event, all for a pretty penny. But wait! The Ames Free Library gives all this and more to your family for FREE! Free! Think about it.

Did you know that 7,000 of you (kids and adults) attended a library program in 2009/10? You borrowed a whopping 150,000 items from the library last year? 400 of you enjoy the library's free services every day?

Let's face it, the Ames Free Library is the best place for a bargain these days when we really need it more than ever. But we can't do it without your help!

Our annual appeal letter has been mailed out to families all over Easton during the past few weeks. However, if you haven't already received one in the mail, please come by the library and pick up your letter and reply envelope today!

Give generously to the place that really delivers: The Ames Free Library....Where the Community Connects.

In Memoriam:

We give heartfelt thanks to the families of William J. O'Hara and Benjamin Zerlin for directing donations in memory of their loved ones to the Ames Free Library. The bequests will help support the library collection and sponsor programs for the entire community.

Easton Landscapes Natural and Manmade

Tuesday, June 22, 10:00 AM - 12:00 PM
Meet at the front of the Main Library, 53 Main Street.

Walk with historian Ed Hands through two of Easton's unique outdoor jewels: the newly recreated Queset Gardens and the famous Rockery. Learn about the rich history associated with these creations, even as you enjoy a pleasant morning out in the open!
Registration required.

In the Display Case Queset Garden Exhibit

Local landscape designer, Katherine Holland, of Blue Newt Designs can be seen in front of the June exhibit.

The exhibit displays pictures of Queset Garden in its heyday in the 1920's; the rampant overgrowth that swallowed the garden, as captured by Holland in 2006, and its magical restoration based on her design, in 2009.

Reminder....

The Annual Town Meeting will be reconvening on Monday, June 14, 2010 at 7:00 pm in the Oliver Ames High School Auditorium.
